Gala Dinner and Award Ceremony Venues are getting busier than ever with more and more events taking place each year. Over the past 3 years we have seen these type of events grow by up to 25% per annum. Conference and Incentive Travel Magazine are predicting a shortage of venue space in 2008 and 2009. There are more events in Key UK cities than ever before! This problem is expected to be most severe in London running up to 2012. However, new venues are planning to open and help solve these problems.

The answer to this is to plan as far ahead as possible. The Venue Team are already taking bookings for events in Late 2008 and even 2009.

This month we are focusing on venues that are great for these type of events. Should you be planning your next event it is never too early to give The Venue Team a call on 08445 007 138. We will start searching on your behalf immediately - FOR FREE! Alternatively, click the links below to send us your enquiry online or to request a call back.

We have over 8000 UK venues on our books and source venues for anything from a boardroom for 10 all the way up to events for over 3000 people.
